

the CRF Sequence Listing that accompanied the December 9th Amendment was “melted.” The December 9th Amendment was addressed to BOX SEQUENCE LISTING (Arlington, Virginia 22202) and the disk was not melted when it was placed in the United States post on December 9th. Applicants note that this is at least the second instance in which the disk bearing the CRF Sequence Listing has been destroyed, despite applicants’ compliance with the rule requiring sequence listing submission to be sent to the Arlington, Virginia address.

Because of this repeated difficulty, the applicants have submitted the CRF Sequence Listing by EFS, on March 5, 2003. A copy of the Acknowledgement Receipt generated by this transaction, and a copy of the Transmittal Form that accompanied it are closed hereto. The disk submitted herewith is a duplicate of the EFS submission.

This Sequence Listing (both paper and computer readable form (disk and EFS submission) is identical to that submitted to the PTO by way of the Amendment and Response filed by applicants on each of December 9th, 2002 and September 5th, 2002; the remarks and comments related to the Sequence Listing made in the September 5th and the December 9th submission are incorporated herein by reference.

A newly-executed Statement under 37 C.F.R. § 1.821 et seq. and a copy of the Notice to Comply are also provided, as requested by the Examiner in Paper No. 25.

CONCLUSION

In view of the remarks and amendments above, it is respectfully submitted that the claims of the invention are fully compliant with the requirements related to applications containing sequence disclosures. Accordingly, reconsideration and allowance of the claims are earnestly solicited at the earliest opportunity.

Respectfully submitted,

JÜRGEN ECK et al.
